

Rainbow Bridge Between the Sexes

香港家庭計劃指導會
The Family Planning Association of Hong Kong

There are lots of things to learn when interacting with males or females. Which of the following characters or skills help a person getting along with the opposite sex?

MALES		Strong		Good at cooking		Beautiful
	Intelligent		Optimistic		Long hair
Frank		Patience		Musical-talented		Serious
	Active		Hard-working		Sporty
Smart		Thoughtful		Articulate		Kind-hearted
	Rich		Short		Plump
Slim		Gentle		Tall		FEMALES

How to draw a rainbow bridge: (see example) :

- 1) In the above items, select seven of them you think they are most important ;
- 2) Find the shortest way to join the selected items in order to link up males and females. You may walk diagonally.
- 3) Fill up the small rectangles with rainbow colors: start with red for the square closest to your gender, then orange, yellow, green, light green, blue, and purple.

Example :

※choices made by a male student

Why do you think a particular character or skill is important to you?

Appearance	Characters	Skills
Strong; beautiful; long hair; short; plump; slim; tall	Optimistic; frank; patience; serious; active; hard-working; smart; thoughtful; kind-hearted; gentle.	Good at cooking; intelligent; musical-talented; sporty; articulate; rich

What affecting you to make friends with people? Appearance, characters, or skills? Do you agree that certain characters or skills would make people popular? Can you identify the skills you have developed already? Teenagers are very conscious about their popularity. Remember, do appreciate yourself and try exploring your potentials. There are inborn talents but some abilities can be nurtured. So improve what you feel less confident and further develop those skills you are good at!