Suggested Answers:

If an exhibitionist showed it, ...

Suggestion: Stay calm and pretend that you didn’t see anything, because your terrified reaction will only make the exhibitionist more aroused.

If someone told sex-related jokes and made disparaging remarks on your body, ...

Suggestion: Express your anger by saying, “That’s enough!” Inform your teachers or social workers if the perpetrator(s) simply ignore your feelings.

If a passenger was masturbating in front of you on public transportation, ...

Suggestion: Stay calm and move away. Don’t be afraid to speak up because public pressure could scare the exhibitionist away. Inform the driver if needed.

If your teacher hinted that you would regret if you did not comply for a date, ...

Suggestion: State clear about your hurt feelings. You should seek help from other teachers or social workers if such behavior or request continued.

If your classmates shared their pornography with you, ...

Suggestion: Be brave and say, “Stay away from me! Or do you want me to tell our Class Teacher?”

If a medical staff touched you in a clinic for no reason, ...

Suggestion: Request to have the presence of a nurse when doing medical check-up. Ask for details from the medical staff should you have any queries about treatment.
