Sexual orientation

How would you respond if the following scenario occurred to you?

Joe: Jackie and I are buddies. He cares about me and understands me well. We always hang out together.

Joe: Now that I found we are not just “friends”, I mean, I might have fallen in love with him. Am I a homosexual?

Think:
Do you think Joe is a homosexual? Why and why not?

If you were Joe, how would you find out your sexual orientation?

Would you accept yourself if you found out that you were a homosexual? Why and why not?
